

Instructions for parents:

- Print out the exercise pages.
- Discuss the picture and title briefly with your child.
- Invite your child to follow the steps, answer the questions and use the vocabulary. Encourage any extra writing or additional details. The focus given are suggestions only.
- The focus is on fluency, not handwriting or grammar. Please do not scold your child over this. You should encourage your child gently.

Mark the completed work using ticks and encouragement. Do not use red pen to write crosses. (It will discourage your child) You may use the suggested answers for reference. Answers may vary.

You may print the final page writing paper if your child is very young.
