

Primary 3 Key Prepositions

for

of

at

on

in

under

around

out

up

into

to

about

over

behind

under

after

with

from

as

by

before

along

beside through

onto

without inside

Exercise 7

Fill in the blanks in the following passage using the correct words.

Oceans

There are four main oceans _____ the world. In fact, most of the earth is covered _____ water.

Many fish and plants live _____ the ocean. It is full _____ many wonderful animals. Some stay _____ the water all the time and never go _____ for air. Other animals like sharks and whales need to go _____ the ocean to get up to breathe.

The ocean gives us fish _____ food. It also gives us sail boats _____ one place to another place. We can even swim _____ it and jump _____ ocean waves.

If you walk _____ a beach _____ the ocean you can see many shells and even see fish that _____ been washed _____ the beach from the ocean.

When you grow older, you can take some lessons _____ and learn how to swim down very deep _____ the ocean to see all the beautiful creatures living there.

Thinking Skills

Do you like the ocean?

Exercise 7

Fill in the blanks in the following passage using the correct words.

Oceans

There are four main oceans in the world. In fact, most of the earth is covered by/with water.

Many fish and plants live in the ocean. It is full of many wonderful animals. Some stay under/beneath the water all the time and never go up for air. Other animals like sharks and whales need to go above the ocean to get air to breathe.

The ocean gives us fish for food. It also lets us sail boats from one place to another place. We can even swim in it and jump over ocean waves.

If you walk along/on a beach beside the ocean you can see many shells and even things that have been washed onto the beach from the ocean.

When you grow older, you can take some lessons and learn how to swim down very deep in the ocean to see all the beautiful creatures living there.

Thinking Skills

Do you like the ocean?