

Primary 4 Key Prepositions

to

in

into

of

at

by

with

from

on beside

off

after

for

under

before

near between

below

as

like

until about

than through outside

inside

opposite

across

onto

without

Exercise 5 - questions

Complete each blank using the correct preposition (ONE word).

Karate Kevin

Kevin has a nickname: Karate Kevin. The reason he has this nickname is that he is so keen _____ karate. He began taking lessons _____ the age of five and has been doing it _____ nearly four years. _____ first, he didn't like it much and was afraid that he might get hurt or end _____ hurting somebody else badly. He also didn't like taking off his shoes _____ during practice.

After a few lessons, he found that he enjoyed it and that karate isn't about trying to hurt others _____ purpose. He realised that being good _____ karate is all about learning special skills to use his body. He had to build _____ his strength and learn to use his arms and legs

Now, Kevin is very devoted _____ karate. His karate master is very famous _____ Hong Kong and Kevin is lucky to have him. He spends a lot of time helping Kevin train _____ competitions.

Right now, Kevin is practicing for a big competition _____ another famous karate school. Last year, he competed _____ the same competition and his team were the champions. He is hoping his team will leave _____ the trophy again! Every time he goes to the karate centre, he admires all the trophies _____ the shelves _____ the cabinet!

Thinking Skills

Can you think of any other hobbies that are similar to karate?

Exercise 2 - questions

Complete each blank using the correct preposition (ONE word).

Hide and Seek with Jack!

When we brought our cat Jack home _____ the vets, he was very happy to get home and he ran _____ the house. But then he disappeared!

We looked _____ him on the floor and _____ the kitchen table in case he was hiding there. We looked for him _____ the cabinet. We looked for him _____ the wardrobe _____ my bedroom and even _____ the door but he still could not be found anywhere!

Then we heard a little noise coming _____ the bedroom, so we went to check there for our silly cat but he was nowhere to be seen. We listened again. _____ the bed, we found him squeezed _____ one of the drawers. He was purring happily in a drawer full _____ warm sweaters. We have _____ how he managed to open the drawer and climb _____. Someone must have _____ the drawer without knowing he was curled _____ inside.

We were very happy that we found him _____ looking for him _____ an hour.

He is very good _____ playing hide and seek!

Thinking Skills

Where else do you think cats like to hide?